

Passover & Feast of Unleavened Bread

Warmest Greetings to You!

We extend a warm welcome as you join us for the 2017 Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread! Our goal at Yahweh's Restoration Ministry is to be true to the Word and to honor Yahweh in every way. We are glad that you share these same desires. Finding those who are sincere in following and obeying Yahweh in all things is like discovering a jewel in the sand, but much more precious.

The Feast is a time to focus on Yahweh and enjoy the fellowship of brethren. To get the most spiritually out of the Feast, we will have several services and Bible studies scheduled. We will have children's and youth classes throughout the Feast as well.

Plenty of time will be allowed for fellowship, study, relaxation, and recreation. The young and young at heart should have a great time with all that the Ministry offers. In Leviticus 23:40 Yahweh commands us to rejoice at His Feast, and we plan to do just that!

During the Bible studies, courtesy is to be exercised, and each should come with a humble attitude that we are all still learning about Yahweh and His ways for us.

Passover and Baptism

Please note that only those immersed into Yahshua's Name will be able to partake of the Passover emblems. Scripturally, all participants are to be baptized, Exodus 12:44. Paul in Colossians 2:11-13 explains circumcision is no longer accomplished through the flesh, but by baptism into Yahshua's Name. For those interested in baptism, there will opportunities before Passover and during the Feast.

Guidelines for a Great Feast

We want everyone to have a memorable Feast. Therefore we have established the following guidelines to ensure proper order and everyone's enjoyment and edification. Foremost, we are here to learn of Yahweh's will for us. For this reason we encourage all to attend the worship services along with the scheduled Bible studies and workshops. Yahweh is always top priority.

All speakers and moderators have been pre-selected. We do, however, invite brethren to be involved in other ways in the services. Please give the speakers your utmost attention and afford them the courtesy of not interrupting during their messages. If you have a question about the message you may ask it of the speaker after services. Also, try to remain seated during services. If you must get up during the service we ask that you do so quietly and in a non-disruptive manner. Please instruct your children to do the same.

Dress Code

To ensure proper respect during worship times, we request that men and boys wear dress or collar shirts and pants. Women and young ladies should wear dresses, skirts that cover the knee or dress pants. If you do not have this attire for worship please come in your best. At all times, please avoid immodest shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing. This includes modesty in the communal bathrooms.

Also, women and young ladies should cover their heads during worship (1Cor. 11:6) and men are to leave their heads uncovered (1Cor. 11:7). This includes both formal Bible studies and services.

Be Respectful

This Feast is sponsored by YRM. If you have doctrinal differences, we ask that you discuss them only with YRM ministers and not go around privately to others, including in private Bible studies away from the camp. This request is to maintain sound doctrine and spiritual unity throughout the Feast. YRM ministers include: Elder Alan Mansager, Elder Randy Folliard, Elder Bob Wirl, Deacon Steve Reed, and Deacon Terry O’Neal.

High Days and Sabbath

We ask that all Feast-goers, adults and children alike, respect the High Days and weekly Sabbath by remembering that these are times of rest and spiritual fellowship, Exodus 20:8-11; Isaiah 58:13. Please abstain from cooking or baking in the kitchen or roasting over campfires on these days, Exodus 16:23. In addition, no organized sports or hard play is permitted, including for children on High Days and the Sabbath. The gym will also be closed during these times.

Parental Responsibilities

It is important that the young people have a great time at the Feast and build wonderful memories of obeying Yahweh at His special time. To ensure safety and order, parents should have their children under control and know of their whereabouts at all times.

Children’s and Youth Classes

Children’s classes will be available to children ages 3-7 and youth classes for ages 8-12 during Bible studies and workshops. There will also be an open, unsupervised nursery and playroom for mothers with children (for ages 4 and under) during worship services.

Refrain from Leavening

Please do NOT bring any leavening products on assembly grounds or in buildings. The following ingredients must be avoided: yeast, baker's yeast, active dried yeast, baking powder, baking soda, cream of tartar (potassium bitartrate), sourdough, sourdough starter, ammonium carbonate, ammonium bicarbonate, potassium carbonate, potassium bicarbonate, dipotassium carbonate, beer/wine/alcohol, Preparation H (has yeast), cat and dog foods with yeast, and toothpastes with baking soda.

Non-leavening products (no need to remove): puffed cereals, brewer's yeast, yeast extract, autolyzed yeast extract, soda pop, egg whites, alum, and sodium caseinate.

Kitchen and Cleanup

Those using YRM's kitchen must clean up after themselves, including rinsing dishes and placing them in the dishwasher. Nothing should be left in the sink. Those who leave the kitchen messy may forfeit the use of the kitchen. For questions regarding facilities, please see kitchen coordinators.

YRM's refrigerators and freezers are reserved for group fellowship and communal meals only. Groceries for individual meals must be stored in personal coolers or refrigerators (an ice machine is located in YRM's kitchen).

Meals

While meals will be the responsibility of individual Feast-goers, we will offer several meals throughout the Feast, including communal meals on the weekly and annual Sabbaths and our traditional Mediterranean Dinner. Please bring a covered dish to the communal meals for all to share. Also, please no food or drink in the worship hall.

Volunteer Opportunities

We thank all those who volunteer to help. Your support is greatly appreciated. It's important to be punctual and complete all assigned tasks. If you are scheduled to volunteer, but find yourself unable, please see Deacon Steve Reed or Deacon Terry O’Neal.

Building Hours

The worship and fellowship hall will be open from 8:00 am – 10:00 pm. The gym will be open throughout the Feast, but all those ages 16 and under must have adult supervision. If you are staying at YRM’s campground and require access to the lower level communal bathrooms, please see Sister Debbie Wirl for a guest badge.

Quiet Hours

We request that all Feast-goers respect quiet hours from 10:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Electronic Equipment and Musical Instruments

Remind your children that all electronic and musical equipment and instruments in the meeting hall, including shofars, are expensive and fragile and are off limits to everyone but the technicians and musicians. For assistance, please see lead musician, Randy Dimmett, or another member of the worship team.

Special Music/Offerings

If you desire to offer praise, we encourage you to honor Yahweh with your gift during the times for special offerings. Please follow the guidelines below: (1) Use the sacred Names Yahweh and Yahshua and refrain from using the common titles. (2) Offerings are for songs and poems only. (3) Limit your offering to no more than six minutes and be considerate of others.

Pets

Pets are allowed in the camping area only. Please refrain from bringing pets into buildings and lodgings.
